Information's Station:

B/F: That on 17/02/21 at 1030 hours on received an oral information from Ram Limboo, 60 yrs, s/o Mahesh Limboo, r/o Ramom Busty stating that in-between the night of 16/02/21 to 17/02/21 at around 2330 hours to 0100 hrs a fire broke out in his makeshift hut. The informant further stated that he use to stay with one Chandra Limboo, 75yrs old and while they were on deep sleep, suddenly fire broke out from kitchen side wherein he sensing danger woke up and called his friend to come out of the house. As he came out he found half portion of his house totally gutted by fire, but he was unaware whether his friend Chandra Limboo was inside or outside and he went missing. The informant tried to douse the fire but he alone couldn't control the fire and ran towards his nearby neighbour who stays approx. 2kms away from the spot for help.

As per his information the Police search team inspected the area minutely and found some burnt suspected human bones/remnants.
