Sir,

That on 13/05/21 at around 1805 hours, a written report was received from one Shri Netan Bhardwaj, construction manager of AEIPL, Chungthang under Teesta Urja limited mentioning that on the same day at around 1730 hours one male welder named Dharmnath was found dead inside the tunnel. Thereafter, he immediately evacuated the deceased to Chungthang CHC. Subsequently, a Chungthang CP/PS UD case No. 04/2021, dated: 13.05.2021, u/s 174 CrPC was registered on the death of Dharmnath and the case was taken up for investigation.

The deceased had tested positive for COVID 19 on rat test conducted at Chungthang CHC. Accordingly, all legal formalities were complied with duly following the COVID 19 safety protocols and the deceased has been forwarded to district hospital Mangan for legal autopsy with strict adherence to COVID safety protocols.

During the course of investigation the deceased was identified as Dharmnath, age 54 years s/o Videshi Prasad r/o Pathakhauli, Kaparwar, Deoria, Uttar Pradesh, a/p- Chungthang, North Sikkim was working as a welder under BMP company at Teesta Urja Damsite, Chungthang for the past five years. That on 13.05.2021 the deceased along with other laborers were reportedly working inside the ST-I tunnel to repair the said tunnel. Reportedly, three millers/mixers bearing registration No. WB 74 AX 0466, WN 74 AX 0455 and SK03D 0557 with respective drivers viz. Sonam Lepcha, Ram Bahadur Mukhia (Sunwar) and Adorjay Tamang @ Solomon were deployed for transporting mixed concrete materials in the said tunnel where the repairing work was undergoing. It is revealed as per the verbatim version of Rajendra Joshi, Foreman that at around 1700 hours he along with the deceased was in the tunnel nearby the repairing work site and at the same time miller/mixer bearing registration no. WB 74 AX 0466 driven by Sonam Lepcha returned from the tunnel after unloading the concrete materials at the repairing work site. Thereafter, he went outside to check other millers/mixers while the deceased stayed back at the same place and the miller/mixer bearing registration No. WB74 AX 0455 being driven by Adorjay Tamang @ Solomon proceeded towards the tunnel and after unloading the concrete materials he came out in reversed gear as there was no enough space to turn around the vehicle. While in the process of reversing the miller (vehicle) he ran over the deceased who was standing on the side
